June 6 (10 - 11:30 AM) Disability Discrimination & Reasonable Accommodations Workshop Training Virtual (Flyer)

Dane County Job Center 1819 Aberg Ave. Madison, WI

Information about the Workshop

The City of Madison Department of Civil Rights and the Dane County Job Center have partnered to offer free trainings designed to educate and empower job-seekers, employers, and the wider community on equal opportunities laws and best employment practices. Everyone has biases that shape how we see the world. Unconscious bias allows us to process complex information and assists us with decision making. During this FREE VIRTUAL training, we will review reasonable accommodations and types of adverse actions related to an individual's disability. This training will discuss employee/applicant rights and responsibilities, as well as employer best practices. This is open to the public.

Registration Information

To register for the Zoom link please email your request to Jennifer Seese – jennifer.seese@dwd.wisconsin.gov indicate if you will come to the Job Center to use a computer to view the virtual workshop or just need the zoom link to use on your own device.
