

Adams County Library Services during the Health Emergency

Updated 3/24/2020

Due to the health emergency, Adams County Library is closed to the public. All programs are cancelled. According to Emergency Order #12, this closure is expected to continue until Friday, April 24, 2020.

During the closure, Library staff will answer questions by phone and email, and provide access to the Library's digital resources. Patrons are encouraged to call or email the library for help. Items that need to be copied or faxed can be sent to the library digitally---the Library will mail items back to you.

How to Contact the Library

---By phone at 608-339-4250

- Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday between 10 am and 4:30 pm;
- No staff available for phone calls on Thursday or Saturday.

---By email at ACLibraryWisc@gmail.com

- This new email that will allow questions to be sent to us at times we are not taking phone calls. All staff can access this account.

Please be Safe

The State of Wisconsin and Adams County have ordered this restricted service in the interest of keeping everyone safe.

That is the wish of the Library also. Please be safe.
